

The Agile Facilitator

Catalyzing collaboration to deliver results

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This workshop focuses on professional facilitation skills and techniques within the Agile team context. It was developed by the prestigious Agile Coaching Institute.

WHO WILL BENEFIT

- Agilists who want to dramatically increase their facilitation skills, especially as applied to Agile ceremonies, collaborative events and other team “moments of truth.”
- Beginning and experienced ScrumMasters, Agile Project Managers, Iteration Managers.
- Agile coaches seeking to improve their skills and results.
- Anyone interested in bringing more rigor and structure to their facilitation of Agile ceremonies and other collaboration activities.

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE

This is an intermediate-level course for practitioners with at least 3 months of hands-on Agile experience. Participants should also be grounded in Agile Fundamentals (ICAgile Certified Professional), be a Certified ScrumMaster, or have equivalent Agile training, because the course builds directly on Agile team experience.

Maximum Attendees

30

Duration

2 days including 1 evening

Credits and Certifications

- ICAgile Certified Professional in Agile Team Facilitation (ICP-ATF)
- 16 Scrum Alliance SEUs
- 16 PMI PDUs

AFTER THIS WORK

Course participants often leave with more questions than they have answers. Introduction to these practices focuses on high-level Agile topics, and brings forward subjects that often require additional discussion and exploration. To achieve the best value, consider pairing the workshop with follow-up Agile coaching to learn more about how Agile values, principles, and practices can be applied within your organization. Follow-up mentoring for developing coaches also can have significant value.
